THROUGH ITS CREATIVE DESIGNS, EXCEPTIONAL WORKMANSHIP AND PASSION FOR LANDSCAPING, SECRET GARDENS OF SYDNEY INJECTS NEW LIFE INTO OUTDOOR LIVING

PRODUCED BY CREATIVE SERVICES

CREATIVE THINKERS

For more than 15 years, Matthew Cantwell, the managing director of Secret Gardens of Sydney and his inspired team of landscape architects, construction specialists and horticulturalists have transformed gardens and outdoor spaces into living sanctuaries. Be it a large or small area atop a penthouse apartment, a private courtyard or an impressive block of land bordering Sydney harbour, the company's eclectic and extensive portfolio demonstrates a proven ability to create truly unique landscapes.

INDIVIDUAL STYLE

Mindful of the history and architectural features of every site they visit, the team works to ensure every one of its clients' wishes are met. From the initial consultation and design process, through to construction and ongoing maintenance, a passion for all things gardening is paramount. The result is an inspirational setting, a place where clients can entertain day after day or simply retreat to and enjoy the peace and serenity that gardens evoke.

UNIQUE RESULTS

From manicured lawns and exotic plantings to tranquil water features, lighting, paving and pathways to heaven, Secret Gardens of Sydney nurtures each project and takes care of every detail. Whether you prefer a classic and elegant garden rimmed by impressive walls and hedgerows; a tropical resort-style hideaway punctuated by wooden walkways, lush plantings and exotic sculptures; or an utterly modern setting which incorporates striking stainless steel, glass and other materials with dramatic effect, Secret Gardens of Sydney will bring your vision to life.

A winner of numerous awards, Secret Gardens of Sydney pushes the boundaries and introduces ideas which enhance the environment. In its ongoing quest to create secret hideaways which surprise and delight, the Secret Gardens' team treats every project as an integral part of your living space.

MATTHEW CANTWELL

Matthew Cantwell's love of gardens began at a very early age and, before too long, his fascination with plants, design and construction lead him to pursue a career in landscaping. After completing a Diploma in Applied Science (Landscaping), gaining experience working with some of the leading landscapers of the time, and recognising a need in the market for clients to have access to a complete landscaping service, Matthew branched out on his own. In 1994, Secret Gardens of Sydney was established. Today, Matthew's vision continues to flourish as the company delivers inspirational gardens for customers to enjoy for many years to come.
